Vladivostok Statement

The Vladivostok Conference recognized the considerable progress and achievement in promoting dialogue, interaction and research aimed at regional cooperation in Northeast Asia.

Reconfirming the vision and goals of the Northeast Asia Economic Forum, the Conference called for increased efforts and activities in this regard, including those focused on the larger Tumen River development region. Through the Northeast Asia Economic Forum with Dr. Lee—Jay Cho as Chairman, the Conference agreed that the countries concerned should undertake to generate resources to continue and enhance international dialogue, research, and exchange of information concerning economic cooperation in Northeast Asia, including the institutionalization of an annual conference and publication of a regional newsletter in the near future.
